

Mažoji žvaigždė NOVA

La piccola stella Nova · Der kleine Stern Nova

» · gimusi po Vėžio saule ir Skorpiono mėnuliu · ✦

2024 m. liepos 16 d. · Frankfurt am Main

Kai gimė Nova,
dangus nusišypojo.

*Quando è nata Nova,
il cielo ha sorriso.*

Als Nova geboren wurde,
lächelte der Himmel.

Nova atplaukē
iš žvaigždžių jūros.

*Nova è arrivata
dal mare delle stelle.*

Nova kam
aus dem Meer der Sterne.

Jos širdelė šilta
kaip namų šviesa.

*Il suo cuoricino è caldo
come la luce di casa.*

Ihr Herz ist warm
wie das Licht zu Hause.

Kai jausmai dideli —
mėnulis ją sūpuoja.

*Quando i sentimenti sono grandi,
la luna la culla.*

Wenn die Gefühle groß sind,
wiegt der Mond sie sanft.

Lars ir Luis — dvi šviesios žvaigždės šalia jos.

Lars e Luis — due stelle luminose accanto a lei.

Lars und Luis — zwei helle Sterne an ihrer Seite.

Jos juokas —
mažas saulės spindulys.

La sua risata è un piccolo raggio di sole.

Ihr Lachen ist
ein kleiner Sonnenstrahl.

Miegok, mažoji žvaigždute.

Dangus tave laiko.

Dormi, piccola stella.

Il cielo ti tiene.

Schlaf, kleiner Stern.

Der Himmel hält dich.

Labanakt, Nova.

Buonanotte, Nova.

Gute Nacht, Nova.

◆ NOVOS DANGUS · FOR THE PARENTS

Every line of this lullaby comes from Nova's real birth sky — computed for 16 July 2024, 23:04, Frankfurt am Main.

"She sailed in from the sea of stars" — her Pisces rising: a dreamy, watery first light. Her name already knew.

"Her heart is warm like the light of home" — Cancer Sun in the house of play: family is her sun, and she will warm it back.

"When the feelings are big, the moon rocks her" — a Scorpio Moon feels everything, all the way down. She doesn't need her feelings fixed; she needs them held. That is the whole spread, and perhaps the most useful sentence in this book.

"Her laugh — a little ray of sun" — Venus and Mercury in Leo: warmth and delight that will love an audience.

A story is a mirror, not a map of destiny. Read it to her; one day she will read it herself. ◆
